

Courtney was a straight A student
Until she met Dave
He worked at the tool and die
They met at the Coney Island

When they set the date her Mom was
Yelling out the door
I hope you got a better plan
Than me and your old man

It was over so quick, they didn't throw the rice
I hope the pictures turned out nice...

While they were waiting at the Roman Forum
Screaming at the Roman Forum
They were wishing them well
The way you do
When you hope their love is true

People often talk and they said
What's she see in Dave?
Was she in a family way?
At least she didn't show today.

Meanwhile Uncle Bill is holding
Court at the bar
Taking bout the Tigers game
And the time he met Bobby Lane

They've got plenty of time to make their money last
The honeymoon it goes by so fast

Just like dinner at the Roman Forum
They were dancing at the Roman Forum
They were toasting the bride
And roasting the groom
While the kids snuck out of the room
The last reception at the Roman Forum

They're closing down the Roman Forum
Courtney and Dave snuck out on the lawn
And the statue of the Venus was gone...
